Careermag

The next few years of your child's education are such important ones, not just because of their academic achievements and the knowledge they will learn but also because of who they will become. In this time they are going to be forming into adults, working out what they want and don't want and what their future may look like.

In a changing world, the possibilities also change. The options available to them include vocational pathways as well as A levels and GCSEs, they include graduate schemes, apprenticeships, internships as well as degrees.

Below is a link to the latest edition of the Careermag for parents. It includes expert guides to help you help them

Job of the month - TV Producer

TV Producers are responsible for facilitating a film, TV programme or video project from beginning to end, overseeing the project both in the studio and on location. Those looking to become a TV producer should expect to decide projects to produce on and create programme ideas. They will need the ability to secure rights of books as well as negotiating with writers.

Individuals who work as TV producers need excellent production and communication skills, the ability to work under pressure and be flexible to change. They will need to work out resources they will need as well as pitching skills, planning filming schedules and managing a team.

Employer Database

At Blatchington Mill School we are looking to develop our careers provision and would like to increase opportunities and links with local employers and employees. Our aim is to build a database of willing employers and their employees who we can call on in the future to help us. We would like to thank parents and carers of Year 7 and 8 students for already providing similar information on your child's registration form.

We would kindly ask you to complete our survey as well, as we are very aware that circumstances may change. If you feel you are able to help with this, please click here to complete a short survey.
