LATE ARRIVAL

Should you arrive late it is up to the Exams Officer to decide whether you will be able to sit the exam. This will depend on how late you are and the reason for the delay; the Exam Boards will have to be notified of any lateness into exams.

MISSING AN EXAM

If you miss an exam you will NOT be able to do it again this year.

PROCEDURE FOR ILLNESS

If you are feeling unwell, but still able to travel, it is best to take the exam if you can. You should, however, let a member of the Exam Invigilation Team know that you are not feeling well.

If you are ill and cannot take the exam, you MUST telephone the school and speak to someone from either the Year Office or the Exams Office. You MUST also obtain a note from your doctor detailing the reason for non-attendance. Depending on the circumstance we may be able to apply to the Exam Board for special consideration.

If in doubt call the school as early as possible and ask to speak to the Exams Office or the Year Office.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

When there have been special circumstances causing the candidate to not produce their best work during their exam, these can be reported to the Exam Board and they may make a small concession. Examples which may qualify are illness at the time of the exam, death or terminal illness in the family. If you are aware of any special circumstances, please pass this information to your Year Leader.

WHAT TO DO IF THE FIRE ALARM SOUNDS DURING AN EXAM

These instructions must be followed in complete silence.

- Do not panic. Stop writing; do not attempt to finish the sentence you are writing.
- When asked, leave the room in silence. Leave all equipment in the exam room, including the examination papers.
- As you leave the room DO NOT communicate with anybody.
- You must follow the invigilator/staff member in front. Line up as you were sitting in the exam.
- When you return to the exam room, do not start writing until the invigilator tells you to. The time lost will be added on at the end of the exam.
- The Exam Board will be notified of the disruption to the exam.

Listen carefully to instructions and do not panic.

If you have any questions or concerns about your exams please email the Exams Office (exams@blatchingtonmill.org.uk) as soon as possible.

Do not wait until the morning of the exam to ask questions as the Exams Team will be extremely busy and may not be available to help you!
